Play With Me!

Play With Me!

When you need to unplug your children from electronic devices, it can be hard to find something that occupies their time. Give one of these sensory recipes a try! Not only are they enriching sensory experiences for developing brains, you will be surprised at just how long these recipes keep your children occupied!

Safety is a number one priority for parents, so you will find that the majority of these recipes are taste safe, freeing you from worrying about your child putting a piece in their mouth! However, please note these recipes are not meant to be eaten, so always monitor your little ones while they are exploring!

Add an extra layer of fun to these recipes by bringing in toys from your sand/water table, child safe scissors, shovel toys, stamps, rolling pins, or cookie cutters.
